Dear Jane,

I have prepared and analyzed your horoscope using Vedic (Indian) Astrology using the birth data you provided. The following sections contain my analysis and predictions about several aspects of your life.

Please bear in mind the following important points:

- Your ascendant is Scorpio. My website www.AstroMirror.com has monthly predictions based on ascendant. If you look for your monthly predictions on my website, please read the predictions for Scorpio.
- Your Moon sign is Capricorn; Your Moon Nakshatra (constellation) is Uttarashadha.
- Your Sun sign is Pisces.
- Your horoscope has one planet in kendra-sthan, two in third house, four in trikon-sthan (fifth house), one in sixth house and one in eleventh house. In your horoscope Jupiter is slightly debilitated. There are no other planets that are exalted or debilitated.
- For Scorpio ascendant, Moon, Sun and Jupiter are benefic; Saturn and Mars are malefic. However, Mars being the lord of ascendant its negative influences are minimized.

Personality:

- Your vedic ascendant is Scorpio, a Mars sign. Being a scorpio, you yearn for emotional intimacy. You are intense and passionate about your views and goals. On the surface you appear calm and controlled but below the surface you are emotional and thinking and wondering.
- You are emotional, loyal, committed, imaginative, generous and intelligent. You possess high power of observation and concentration. You can focus on tasks at hand very well and execute those tasks to completion.
- Bing ruled by Mars, your personality traits are very Martian. You are courageous, alert and aware. As a result of your dynamic and magnetic personality, people are spontaneously attracted to you. In relationships, you can be overwhelming and passionate.

- On the flip side, some people perceive you as aggressive, insensitive to others' feelings, sometime even ruthless. You have a tendency to trust others without doing the due diligence. To accomplish your goals, you may even partner with your enemies or adversaries. You tend to take every comment to heart.
- Sun in fifth house indicates the desire to reveal your creativity, constructively or destructively. You are interested in creative self-expression, through sports, books, acting, dramatic acts, games and romance. You have the ability to enjoy life and to give enjoyment to others. Happiness comes from your artistic or creative endeavors. You need to watch out for your tendency to be dictatorial or to take unnecessary risks.
- You have Venus, the planet of love, romance and sex appeal, placed in your fifth house. This means you are affectionate, creative and attractive to the opposite sex, perhaps too attractive for your own good.
- On the artistic side of life, the fifth Venus gives in interest in drama, art or music; you may even have some talent in these areas.
- Jupiter in the third house makes you philosophical, optimistic and conventional. You have strong intuition. This Jupiter also suggests a tendency to be impractical or self-satisfied. You think in broader terms than in details.
- Moon in the third house grants you intellectual curiosity. You see a need to intellectualize your feelings and express them through speech, poetry or writing. Conjunction of Moon and Jupiter shows strong need for communication to gather information and exchange ideas, especially with women. You accomplish learning by listening, observing and doing rather than reading. Travel appeals to you as it feeds your intellectual curiosity and need to learn new things.
- Uranus in third house makes you independent, original and perhaps a bit eccentric and unusual. People around you cannot understand the way you think and express yourself. This Uranus makes you curious about anything and everything, and as a result creates mental restlessness sending you in search of answers, new information and knowledge. You change your mind as new information filters in to you.

- Neptune in the third house grants you communications skills through clairvoyance. You probably have felt as if you could read people's mind. Your ability to visualize and imagine things is quite pronounced. There are ways to enhance and develop these skills. If this interests you then I can guide you through the process.
- Conjunction of Neptune and Uranus in third house creates interest in occultism and paranormal subjects. There seems to be an inner ability to communicate with spirits. Keep a log of your dreams and psychic experiences and you will start noticing patterns. Again, if this interests you then I can provide guidance.
- Pluto in the ascendant means you are strong-willed, self-sufficient and probably enjoy throwing your weight around. You crave experience and transformations. Although people are drawn to your magnetic personality, from time to time you become a loner making people wonder why.
- You feel that you are not as popular as you would like to be and that conflicts with your desire for others to look up to you. You can mitigate this situation by expressing your love – not through material things – but through warmth of your actions.
- Sixth lord in tenth house creates a curiosity in your mind about foreign religions and how it compares to your own beliefs.

Family:

- Jupiter in third house indicates that you are well liked by your friends, neighbors and relatives. You probably are the eldest (and only) child in the family.
- Conjunction of Saturn and Venus in your fifth house creates a dilemma in love/romantic life. Venus grants you passion and energy. However, Saturn dampens it by creating a feeling of being unloved and unappreciated in your mind. This feeling gets reflected in you being unresponsive or cold. So, the love life will see its share of ups-n-downs. Just when you think that you found your soul mate, some unexpected hurdle will get in the way. This is a typical behavior of Saturn that it just delays, never denies the result. This is Saturn's way of teaching native the value of the results he or she gets. Having said that, rest assured that you will find your soul mate.

- Transit of Jupiter through your seventh house from June 2012 to May 2013 will see you getting romantically attached. You will meet new people and make new friends.
- Timing of wedding: In Vedic Astrology, the timing of wedding is determined based on planetary transits and the time periods ruled by specific planets. The following four periods are very favorable for the wedding.
 1. Jupiter transits into your second house in April 2019 and then immediately retrogrades back into your ascendants. This creates a planetary combination that is favorable for the wedding. However, conjunction of Saturn with Venus in the fifth house is likely to cause some delays.
 2. In the event that #1 is delayed, the next opportunity is when Jupiter transits through your second house and makes "navapancham yoga" with native Mars in March 2020.
 3. Transit of Jupiter through your fifth house from April 2022 to April 2023; especially towards the latter part of this period.
 4. Jupiter will transit through your seventh house (house of spouse) from May 2024 to April 2025. This is a very strong and favorable period.
- Conjunction of Saturn, Sun and Ketu (South Node) in fifth house and Rahu's (North Node) direct aspect on it creates undesirable combination for creation of progeny. You will need to be extra careful during pregnancy.
- Presence of Saturn and Sun in fifth house suggests that your first child will be a boy. We will need to verify this with the father's horoscope. The stronger of the two horoscopes dictates the final outcome.

Career and Finances:

- Your fifth house (house of education) has Saturn placed in it in conjunction with Sun, Venus and Ketu (South Node). Further, twelfth lord is placed in fifth house. This planetary combination will test your perseverance in achieving your academic goals. Saturn in this house will grant you the perseverance that you need to reach your goals. So, success is yours to achieve. Apply your mind and focus on the final goal.

- Sun in fifth house indicates that you will accumulate wealth slowly and steadily. You will make contacts with powerful and influential people.
- Mercury in sixth house is an indication that you will work in the field that requires analytical abilities – such as computers, statistical modeling, data analysis, research projects and the like.
- Conjunction of Moon and Jupiter in third house emphasizes your ability to collect, process and communicate information. You can be a very effective intermediary or arbitrator or the go-between person for parties in conflict – perhaps a career in public relations, law or even diplomacy seems like a viable option. At the first glance, these roles might seem to be in conflict with the fields listed in the bullet above, but they are not. Even in public relations, law, mediator or go-between roles, one has to analyze the situation methodically and strategize the response. So, you will exercise your transferable analytical skills to accomplish your tasks.
- Sixth Mercury shows that you will seek variety in your work. Monotony will frustrate you and you will explore (not necessarily execute) frequent job changes.
- Lord of ascendant in tenth house indicates that you will achieve professional success. You will reach the positions of power at your place of work. You will be a self-made woman.
- Mars in tenth house implies that you will have a leadership role in the organization that you will work for. You will lead and show the way. You will achieve success through your own enterprise. The flip side of this Mars is that your coworkers and bosses won't share the same level of enthusiasm and high energy as you do leading to some friction with them.
- Your horoscope supports you venturing into your own business. A line of business that relates to training/guiding people – for example academics, formal or vocational training and mediator or counselor type roles – will bring success to you.

- Your seventh lord is placed in fifth house indicating possible economic gains from your spouse's family.
- Cancer in ninth house indicates some kind of life changing positive event will happen at the age of 24.
- Jupiter's transit through your ninth house from June 2014 to June 2015 will make this a very favorable period for your personal growth. It will offer new opportunities to expand your horizons – professionally and personally. Success is yours to achieve. You will travel to distant places.
- Jupiter will be transiting through your eleventh house from August 2016 to September 2017. This is a very favorable period to accomplish your academic goals. You will make friends with powerful and influential people. Your personal and professional desires will be fulfilled.
- Rahu (North Node) will be transiting through your tenth house from February 2016 to July 2017. During this period, Saturn will also enter the ascendant. These planetary transits are likely to bring in a change of location or residence for you.

Health:

Overall, you will maintain good health. However, we all are prone to certain ailments; you are no exception. Below are some areas to watch out for health issues:

- Aries sign in your sixth house indicates that you are prone to ailments related body parts above shoulder – for example mouth, severe headache, sleeplessness, mental stress and eyes.
- Mercury in sixth house makes you prone to ailments related to skin.
- Sun in fifth house makes your digestive system a bit weak. Be mindful not to stress it.

- Your health will demand attention at the ages of 18, 24, 32, 38, 44, 50 and 58.

Saadesati:

Saadesati is a 7-1/2 year period ruled by Saturn. Every individual goes through this period. Generally speaking, this period is a tad tough. It challenges the native, teaches a few life lessons and as a result makes the native mentally and emotionally stronger. This period is sometimes a little longer than 7-1/2 years if Saturn retrogrades or stalls.

Your saadesati will begin in February 2017 and will end in March 2025. The entire saadesati period is divided into three periods. Each of these periods is roughly 2-1/2 years long. Below are the high-level predictions for each of these three periods.

- February 2017 – January 2020: During this period Saturn will be transiting through your second house. This period will pose some challenges on the financial front. You may have to seek loan or debt to meet your financial obligations. You will experience that the rewards are not commensurate with the efforts that you put in. You will encounter unexpected delays and run into hurdles in your way to accomplish your goals.
- February 2020 – May 2022: This is your second period in saadesati. During this period, Saturn will be transiting through your third house. Since Saturn will be in your native Moon sign, this will be a good period for you. You will gain confidence and expand your horizons. You will embark upon a new career or professional life. You will be entrusted with more responsibilities. This will give you a sense of “growing up”. You may have to travel regularly. Additional responsibilities and travel schedule may cause some stress on you but in the end it will be worth it. So, overall this will be a good period for you.
- June 2022 – March 2025: This is the third period in saadesati. During this period, Saturn will be transiting through your fourth house. As Saturn will be transiting through its own sign, Aquarius, this period will continue on the same note as second period of your saadesati. You will experience significant events in life – such as career growth, investment in assets. Financial situation will improve making you self-confident. This period will keep you busy and you may not pay attention to your health. Some health concern for parents may pop up.

So, barring the first period of saadesati, the rest of saadesati will be favorable to you. Further, during your saadesati Saturn will be transiting through its own signs. This enhances the positive effects to Saturn.

Specific Question(s) You Asked:

- Question from Jane's Mom: I don't know if I have any specific questions. I just don't have the same vision. I am looking to get an idea of how the next 4 years will be... and if college is even something she'll be looking at. She doesn't seem to take anything seriously until it's too late.
- Answered to Jane's Mom: Overall, Jane's horoscope is quite good. Re: your question about Jane's college education, first let's look at why the situation is the way you describe it and then let's talk about remedies.

Education is analyzed from the fifth house in the horoscope. In Jane's horoscope, fifth house has Pisces sign and its lord is Jupiter. However, Jupiter is placed in Capricorn at 21 degrees thus making it slightly debilitated. Further, house of education has conjunction of Saturn and Ketu (South Node) in it and Rahu (North Node) has its direct seventh aspect on fifth house. These planetary combinations are giving her the results that you are observing.

Ok, now that we understand the reasons let's discuss the remedies and the timelines. For educational excellence, we need to strengthen Jane's fifth lord – Jupiter. There are multiple ways to do this – (1) Gem stone therapy (2) color therapy and (3) chanting of "mantras". I encourage my clients to exercise all three ways.

Gem stone therapy: Jane should wear yellow sapphire in the second finger of her active (right if she is right-handed) hand in gold ring. We will discuss this in more details when we meet.

Color therapy: Jane's horoscope indicates a slight deficiency of yellow color. She should try to surround herself with shades of yellow – for example by wearing yellow shade clothing, personal accessories etc. We can discuss this in details when we meet.

Chanting of "mantras": This is done to propitiate certain planets to have them give you their full strength. Scientifically speaking, chanting creates certain sound waves of specific wavelength that releases brain chemicals thus positively affecting one's behavior.

Having discussed the remedies, let's look at next few years as you requested. Jupiter transits into ninth house in June 2014 and then it transits through eleventh house from August 2016 to September 2017. These two periods will completely transform Jane. She will be an independent young vibrant woman.

So, college education is a distinctly viable option for her. She just needs to have a degree of perseverance and she will most certainly accomplish that goal. If you would like, I will be happy to discuss this subject (or even the entire life reading) with Jane.

Vimsottari Dasha (Dasa):

In Vedic Astrology, the native's entire life span is ruled by certain planet during certain periods. This is described as Vimsottari Dasha. This is one of the foundations of predictive astrology. It clearly defines what life events will happen and when. The tables at the end of this document show the Vimsottari Dasha periods for you. Please note the dates are in dd/mm/yyyy format and NOT in mm/dd/yyyy format.

For Scorpio ascendant, the natural benefic planets are Moon, Sun and Jupiter. So, the bhukti periods of these benefic planets within mahadasha periods of all planets will be very favorable to you. Please refer to the Vimsottari Dasha tables at the end of this document to ascertain the bhukti periods of Moon, Sun and Jupiter within all the planets. These periods will be generally favorable to you.

Precious Stones:

There are several types of precious stones available to cure certain malefic effects of the planets. The selection of stone depends upon what area of your life you want addressed. In the above section, we have discussed gem stone therapy to support you in accomplishing your educational goals. If there are any other areas that you would like addressed, then please let me know and I can guide you through the process.

Conclusion:

Overall, your horoscope is very good! Presence of movable signs (Capricorn and Cancer) in third and ninth house indicates that you will travel a lot. Settling down closer to your birth place is beneficial to you in your personal and professional life.

I have provided you with some insight into your life. As always, I welcome your feedback. If there is anything additional or more specific you would like to know, please let me know and I will make my best effort to answer your query.

Shubham Bhavatu!*
